

Rockin' Roxy's Newsletter # 5
News, links and shameless propaganda!
February 2009

Happy New Year Rockin' Roxy's Friends & Family!!

I was so good about sending these newsletters out every month and then January slipped right by me. I experimented with a web-formatted newsletter, compliments of Constant Contact, and if you got one I'd love to hear what you thought about it!

Most Wednesdays & Mondays Jeka, Keith & Meary are here early, so stop in and see the baby.

Meary Trees

Website Photos

While she's lazing about at home, eating bon-bons and watching the world's most perfect baby sleep, Jeka is working on getting the photos updated on our website. Check them out and let us know if your dog needs to be added to our photo albums.

And if you have a favorite photo like this one of Coco in scuba gear that you would like us to add, email it to Jeka at jeka@rockinroxys.com.

Spot Magazine 2nd Annual Top Dog Awards

Spot Magazine, the homegrown rag for Portland's pooches, can be found in print wherever dogs are found and online at www.spotmagazine.net. It offers a slew of interesting articles on training, rescue and human interest.

Spot's March 2009 issue will run its Top Dog Awards and although I'm usually pretty lazy about these things and rely for the most part on word-of-mouth marketing, I figured it couldn't hurt to have our friends enter our name under your favorites for Boarding Facility and Doggy Daycare. You can submit your favorites online at www.spotmagazine.net/top_dog_awards.html.

Yahoo! Stimulus Packages at Roxy's!

Most of you know we have simplified our package pricing, lowering them in the process. Check it out when you come in or online at www.rockinroxys.com. And don't forget if you refer someone you get a free day of daycare or boarding. If you refer a new customer who buys a package, tell me and I'll give you 50% off your next package purchase.

Reviews

And while I'm blatantly marketing Rockin' Roxy's via the Spot Magazine deal and leading you to our website to check out photos and new pricing, I'd love to see some reviews from our newer clients at www.rockinroxys.com. Please feel free to tell the world about your experience here on our "Raves" section. When you're done raving about us on our website, take that positive energy to our little page on Yelp.com (<http://www.yelp.com/biz/rockin-roxys-portland>). A community share site, Yelp is a great place to find new things on which to spend your money!!
